Is the Values Committee Enough?

With Skills like this do you think the Values Committee can negotiate a better future for the crewmembers?

Ground Ops works hard, and deserves a legally binding contract.

Just like Robin Hayes, Joanne Geraghty, Ian Deason, the Pilots and Inflight have.

By the Numbers
 Our Values Committee, we do all we can to best serve our Crew Members in the industry and not just JetBlue. We are always going to do more to educate our Crew Members about the "Great Debate" where we compare against the other top carriers but here are just some numbers:
